Case # 10 CV 1367 JLS JMA

Plaintiff,

vs.

Wells Fargo Home Mortgage

Defendant

ORIGINAL PETITION AND
PETITION FOR RESTRAINING ORDER

9

Date: _____

10 Comes now Placido F. & Yolanda G. Soliven, hereinafter referred to as 11 "Petitioner," and moves the court for relief as herein requested:

12 PARTIES

13 Petitioner is Placido F. & Yolanda G. Soliven, 502 Douglas Street, Chula Vista, CA 91910.
14 Currently Known Defendant(s) are/is Wells Fargo Home Mortgage, 3476 Stateview Blvd., Fort
15 Mill, SC 29715

16 STATEMENT OF CAUSE

17 Petitioner, entered into a consumer contract for the refinance of a primary residence located at 18 502 Douglas Street, Chula Vista, CA 91910 on July 11, 2007 DOC# 2007-0466022, hereinafter
19 referred to as the "property."

20 Defendants, acting in concert and collusion with others, induced Petitioner to enter into a 21 predatory loan agreement with Defendant.

22 Defendants committed numerous acts of fraud against Petitioner in furtherance of a carefully
23 crafted scheme intended to defraud Petitioner.

CP ORIGINAL PETITION

I of 25

24 Defendants failed to make proper notices to Petitioner that would have given Petitioner warning
25 of the types of tactics used by Defendants to defraud Petitioner.

26 Defendants charged false fees to Petitioner at settlement.

27 Defendants used the above referenced false fees to compensate agents of Petitioner in order to 28 induce said agents to breach their fiduciary duty to Petitioner.

29 Defendant's attorney caused to be initiated collection procedures, knowing said collection
30 procedures in the instant action were frivolous as lender is estopped from collection procedures, 31 under authority of Uniform Commercial Code 3-501, subsequent to the request by Petitioner for 32 the production of the original promissory note alleged to create a debt.

33 IN BRIEF

34 (Non-factual Statement of Posture and Position)

35 It is not the intent of Petitioner to indict the entire industry. It is just that Plaintiff will be 36 making a number of allegations that, outside the context of the current condition of the real 37 estate industry, may seem somewhat outrageous and counter-intuitive.

38 When Petitioner accuses ordinary individuals of acting in concert and collusion with an 39 ongoing criminal conspiracy, it tends to trigger an incredulous response as it is 40 unreasonable to consider that all Agents, loan agents, appraisers, and other ordinary 41 people, just doing what they have been trained to do, are out to swindle the poor 42 unsuspecting borrower.

43 The facts Petitioner is prepared to prove are that Petitioner has been harmed by fraud
44 committed by people acting in concert and collusion, one with the other. Petitioner has no
45 reason to believe that the Agent, loan officer, appraiser, and others were consciously aware 46 that what they were doing was part of an ongoing criminal conspiracy, only that it was,
47 and they, at the very least, kept themselves negligently uninformed of the wrongs they 48 were perpetrating. Petitioner maintains the real culprit is the system itself, including the 49 courts, for failure to strictly enforce the consumer protection laws.

50 CAREFULLY CRAFTED CRIMINAL CONNIVANCE

51 (General State of the Real Estate Industry)

52 THE BEST OF INTENTIONS

53 Prior to the 1980's and 1990's ample government protections were in place to protect 54 consumers and the lending industry from precisely the disaster we now experience.
55 During President Clinton's administration, under the guise of making housing available to 56 the poor, primary protections were relaxed which had the effect of releasing the 57 unscrupulous on the unwary.

58 Prior to deregulation in the 1980's, lenders created loans for which they held and assumed 59 the risk. Consequently, Americans were engaged in safe and stable home mortgages.
60 With the protections removed, the unscrupulous lenders swooped in and, instead of 61 making loans available to the poor, used the opportunity to convince the unsophisticated
62 American public to do something that had been traditionally taboo; home buyers were 63 convinced to speculate with their homes, their most important investment.

64 Wells Fargo Bank, NA , Ameriquest, Countrywide, and many others swooped in and 65 convinced Americans to sell their homes, get out of their safe mortgage agreements, and 66 speculate with the equity they had gained by purchasing homes they could not afford.
67 Lenders created loans intended to fail as, under the newly crafted system, the Lender
68 profited more from a mortgage default than from a stable loan.

69 Companies cropped up who called themselves banks when, in fact, they were only either 70 subsidiaries of banks, or unaffiliated companies that were operated for the purpose of 71 creating and selling promissory notes. As will be demonstrated, these companies then 72 profited from the failure of the underlying loans.

73 HOW IT WORKS

74 Briefly, how it works is this, the Lender would secure a large loan from a large bank, 75 convert that loan into 20 and 30 year mortgages and then sell the promise to pay to an 76 investor.

77 People would set up mortgage companies by securing a large loan from one of the major
78 banks, then convert that loan into 20 and 30 year mortgages. In order to accomplish this 79 an Agent would contract with a seller to find a buyer, bring both seller and buyer to a 80 lender who would secure the title from the seller using the borrowed bank funds for that 81 purpose, and then trade the title to the buyer in exchange for a promissory note.

82 The lender then creates a 20 or 30 year mortgage with money the lender must repay within 83 6 months. As soon as the closing is consummated, the promissory note is sold to an 84 investor pool.

85 Using the instant case as an example, a 448,000.00 note at 7.1834%% interest over 30
86 years will produce $371,620.26 The lender can then offer to the investor the security
87 instrument (promissory note) at say 50% of it's future value. The investor will, over the 88 life of the note, less approximately 3.00% servicing fees, realize $535,585.94 . The lender
89 can then pay back the bank and retain a handsome profit in the amount of $120,714.96.
90 The lender, however, is not done with the deal.

91 The lender signed over the promissory note to the investor at the time of the trade, but did 92 not sign over the lien document (mortgage or deed of trust). The State of Kansas Supreme 93 Court addressed this issue and stated that such a transaction was certainly legal. However,
94 it created a fatal flaw as the holder of the lien document, at time of sale of the security
95 instrument, received consideration in excess of the lien amount. Since the lien holder 96 received consideration, he could not be harmed. Therefore the lien became an 97 unenforceable document.

98 This begs the question: if keeping the lien would render it void, why would the lender not 99 simply transfer the lien with the promissory note? The reason is because the lender will 100 hold the lien for three years, file an Internal Revenue Service Form 1099a, claim the full 101 amount of the lien as abandoned funds, and deduct the full amount from the lender's tax 102 liability. The lender, by this maneuver, gets consideration a second time. And still the 103 lender is not done profiting from the deal.

104 After sale of the promissory note, the lender remains as the servicer for the investor. The 105 lender will receive 3% of each payment the lender collects and renders to the investor
106 pool. However, if the payment is late, the lender is allowed to assess an extra 5% and keep 107 that amount. Also, if the loan defaults, the lender stands to gain thousands for handling the 108 foreclosure.

109 The lender stands to profit more from a note that is overly expensive, than from a good 110 stable loan. And where, you may ask, does all this profit come from? It comes from the 111 equity the borrower had built up in the home. And still the lender is not finished profiting 112 from the deal.

113 Another nail was driven in the American financial coffin when on the last day Congress 114 was in session in 2000 when restrictions that had been in place since the economic 115 collapse of 1907 were removed. Until 1907 investors were allowed to bet on stocks
116 without actually buying them. This unbridled speculation led directly to an economic 117 collapse. As a result the legislature banned the practice, until the year 2000. In 2000 the 118 unscrupulous lenders got their way on the last day of the congressional session. Congress
119 removed the restriction banning derivatives and again allowed the practice, this time
120 taking only 8 years to crash the stock market. This practice allowed the lender to profit 121 further from the loan by betting on the failure of the security instrument he had just sold to 122 the unwary investor, thus furthering the purpose of the lender to profit from both the 123 borrower (consumer) and the investor.

124 The failure of so many loans recently resulted in a seven hundred and fifty billion dollar
125 bailout at the expense of the taxpayer. The unsuspecting consumer was lulled into 126 accepting the pronouncements of the lenders, appraisers, underwriters, and trustees as all 127 were acting under the guise of government regulation and, therefore, the borrower had 128 reason to expect good and fair dealings from all. Unfortunately, the regulations in place to 129 protect the consumer from just this kind of abuse were simply being ignored.

130 The loan origination fee from the HUD1 settlement statement is the finder's fee paid for 131 the referral of the client to the lender by a person acting as an agent for the borrower.
132 Hereinafter, the person or entity who receives any portion of the yield spread premium, or 133 a commission of any kind consequent to securing the loan agreement through from the 134 borrower will be referred to as "Agent." The fee, authorized by the consumer protection 135 law is restricted to 1% of the principal of the note. It was intended that the Agent, when 136 seeking out a lender for the borrower, would seek the best deal for his client rather than 137 who would pay him the most. That was the intent, but not the reality. The reality is that 138 Agents never come away from the table with less than 2% or 3% of the principal. This is 139 accomplished by undisclosed fees to the Agent in order to induce the Agent to breach his 140 fiduciary duty to the borrower and convince the borrower to accept a more expensive loan 141 product than the borrower qualifies for. This will generate more profits for the lender and,
142 consequently, for the Agent.

143 It is a common practice for lenders to coerce appraisers to give a higher appraisal than is 144 the fair market price. This allows the lender to increase the cost of the loan product and 145 give the impression that the borrower is justified in making the purchase.

146 The lender then charges the borrower an underwriting fee in order to convince the 147 borrower that someone with knowledge has gone over the conditions of the note and 148 certified that they meet all legal criteria. The trustee, at closing, participates actively in the 149 deception of the borrower by placing undue stress on the borrower to sign the large stack
150 of paperwork without reading it. The trustee is, after all, to be trusted and has been paid to 151 insure the transaction. This trust is systematically violated for the purpose of taking unfair
152 advantage of the borrower. The entire loan process is a carefully crafted contrive 153 connivance designed and intended to induce the unsophisticated borrower into accepting a
154 loan product that is beyond the borrowers means to repay. With all this, it should be a 155 surprise to no one that this country is having a real estate crisis.

156 PETITIONER WILL PROVE THE FOLLOWING

157 Petitioner is prepared to prove, by a preponderance of evidence that:

- 158 • Lender has no legal standing to bring collection or foreclosure claims against the 159 property;
- 160 • Lender is not a real party in interest in any contract which can claim a collateral 161 interest in the property;
- 162 • even if Lender were to prove up a contract to which Lender had standing to enforce 163 against Petitioner, no valid lien exists which would give Lender a claim against the 164 property;
- 165 • even if Lender were to prove up a contract to which Lender had standing to enforce 166 against Petitioner, said contract was fraudulent in its creation as endorsement was 167 secured by acts of negligence, common law fraud, fraud by non-disclosure, fraud in 168 the inducement, fraud in the execution, usury, and breaches of contractual and 169 fiduciary obligations by Mortgagee or "Trustee" on the Deed of Trust, "Mortgage 170 Agents," "Loan Originators," "Loan Seller," "Mortgage Aggregator," "Trustee of 171 Pooled Assets," "Trustee or officers of Structured Investment Vehicle," 172 "Investment Banker," "Trustee of Special Purpose Vehicle/Issuer of Certificates of 173 'Asset-Backed Certificates,'" "Seller of 'Asset-Backed' Certificates (shares or 174 bonds)," "Special Servicer" and Trustee, respectively, of certain mortgage loans 175 pooled together in a trust fund;

- 176 • Defendants have concocted a carefully crafted connivance wherein Lender
177 conspired with Agents, et al, to strip Petitioner of Petitioner's equity in the property
178 by inducing Plaintiff to enter into a predatory loan inflated loan product;
- 179 • Lender received unjust enrichment in the amount of 5% of each payment made late 180 to Lender while Lender and Lender's assigns acted as servicer of the note;
- 181 • Lender and Lender's assigns, who acted as servicer in place of Lender, profited by 182 handling the foreclosure process on a contract Lender designed to have a high 183 probability of default;
- 184 • Lender intended to defraud Investor by converting the promissory note into a 185 security instrument and selling same to Investor;
- 186 • Lender intended to defraud Investor and the taxpayers of the United States by 187 withholding the lien document from the sale of the promissory note in order that 188 Lender could then hold the lien for three years, then prepare and file Internal 189 Revenue Form 1099a and falsely claim the full lien amount as abandoned funds
190 and deduct same from Lender's income tax obligation;
- 191 • Lender defrauded backers of derivatives by betting on the failure of the promissory 192 note the lender designed to default;
- 193 • Participant Defendants, et al, in the securitization scheme described herein have 194 devised business plans to reap millions of dollars in profits at the expense of 195 Petitioner and others similarly situated.

196 PETITIONER SEEKS REMEDY

197 In addition to seeking compensatory, consequential and other damages, Petitioner seeks 198 declaratory relief as to what (if any) party, entity or individual or group thereof is the 199 owner of the promissory note executed at the time of the loan closing, and whether the 200 Deed of Trust (Mortgage) secures any obligation of the Petitioner, and a Mandatory
201 Injunction requiring re-conveyance of the subject property to the Petitioner or, in the 202 alternative a Final Judgment granting Petitioner Quiet Title in the subject property.

203 PETITIONER HAS BEEN HARMED

204 Petitioner has suffered significant harm and detriment as a result of the actions of Defendants.

205 Such harm and detriment includes economic and non-economic damages, and injuries to 206 Petitioner's mental and emotional health and strength, all to be shown according to proof at trial.

207 In addition, Petitioner will suffer grievous and irreparable further harm and detriment unless the 208 equitable relief requested herein is granted.

209 STATEMENT OF CLAIM

210 DEFENDANTS LACK STANDING

211 No evidence of Contractual Obligation

212 Defendants claim a controversy based on a contractual violation by Petitioner but have failed to 213 produce said contract. Even if Defendants produced evidence of the existence of said contract in 214 the form of an allegedly accurate photocopy of said document, a copy is only hearsay evidence 215 that a contract actually existed at one point in time. A copy, considering the present state of 216 technology, could be easily altered. As Lender only created one original and that original was 217 left in the custody of Lender, it was imperative that Lender protect said instrument.

218 In as much as the Lender is required to present the original on demand of Petitioner, there can be 219 no presumption of regularity when the original is not so produced. In as much as Lender has 220 refused Petitioner's request of the chain of custody of the security instrument in question by 221 refusing to identify all current and past real parties in interest, there is no way to follow said 222 chain of custody to insure, by verified testimony, that no alterations to the original provisions in 223 the contract have been made. Therefore, the alleged copy of the original is only hearsay
224 evidence that an original document at one time existed. Petitioner maintains that, absent
225 production of admissible evidence of a contractual obligation on the part of Petitioner,
226 Defendants are without standing to invoke the subject matter jurisdiction of the court.

227 No Proper Evidence of Agency

228 Defendants claim agency to represent the principal in a contractual agreement involving 229 Petitioner, however, Defendants have failed to provide any evidence of said agency other than a 230 pronouncement that agency has been assigned by some person, the true identity and capacity of 231 whom has not been established. Defendants can hardly claim to be agents of a principal then 232 refuse to identify said principal. All claims of agency are made from the mouth of the agent with 233 no attempt to provide admissible evidence from the principal.

234 Absent proof of agency, Defendants lack standing to invoke the subject matter jurisdiction of the 235 court.

236 Special Purpose Vehicle

237 Since the entity now claiming agency to represent the holder of the security instrument is not the 238 original lender, Petitioner has reason to believe that the promissory note, upon consummation of 239 the contract, was converted to a security and sold into a special purpose vehicle and now resides
240 in a Real Estate Mortgage Investment Conduit (REMIC) as defined by the Internal Revenue
241 Code and as such, cannot be removed from the REMIC as such would be a prohibited
242 transaction. If the mortgage was part of a special purpose vehicle and was removed on 243 consideration of foreclosure, the real party in interest would necessarily be the trustee of the 244 special purpose vehicle. Nothing in the pleadings of Defendants indicates the existence of a
245 special purpose vehicle, and the lack of a proper chain of custody documentation gives Petitioner
246 cause to believe defendant is not the proper agent of the real party in interest.

247 CRIMINAL CONSPIRACY AND THEFT

248 Defendants, by and through Defendant's Agents, conspired with other Defendants, et al, toward 249 a criminal conspiracy to defraud Petitioner. Said conspiracy but are not limited to acts of 250 negligence, breach of fiduciary duty, common law fraud, fraud by non-disclosure, and tortious 251 acts of conspiracy and theft, to include but not limited to, the assessment of improper fees to 252 Petitioner by Lender, which were then used to fund the improper payment of commission fees to 253 Agent in order to induce Agent to violate Agent's fiduciary duty to Petitioner.

254 AGENT PRACTICED UP-SELLING

255 By and through the above alleged conspiracy, Agent practiced up-selling to Petitioner. In so
256 doing, Agent violated the trust relationship actively cultivated by Agent and supported by fact
257 that Agent was licensed by the state. Agent further defrauded Petitioner by failing to disclose 258 Agent's conspiratorial relationship to Lender, Agent violated Agent's fiduciary duty to 259 Petitioner and the duty to provide fair and honest services, through a series of carefully crafted
260 connivances, wherein Agent proactively made knowingly false and misleading statements of 261 alleged fact to Petitioner, and by giving partial disclosure of facts intended to directly mislead
262 Petitioner for the purpose of inducing Petitioner to make decisions concerning the acceptance of 263 a loan product offered by the Lender. Said loan product was more expensive than Petitioner

264 could legally afford. Agent acted with full knowledge that Petitioner would have made a 265 different decision had Agent given complete disclosure.

266 FRAUDULENT INDUCEMENT

267 Lender maliciously induced Petitioner to accept a loan product, Lender knew, or should have 268 known, Petitioner could not afford in order to unjustly enrich Lender.

269 EXTRA PROFIT ON SALE OF PREDATORY LOAN PRODUCT

270 Said more expensive loan product was calculated to produce a higher return when sold as a 271 security to an investor who was already waiting to purchase the loan as soon as it could be 272 consummated.

273 Extra Commission for Late Payments

274 Lender acted with deliberate malice in order to induce Petitioner to enter into a loan agreement
275 that Lender intended Petitioner would have difficulty paying. The industry standard payment to 276 the servicer for servicing a mortgage note is 3% of the amount collected. However, if the 277 borrower is late on payments, a 5% late fee is added and this fee is retained by the servicer.
278 Thereby, the Lender stands to receive more than double the regular commission on collections if 279 the borrower pays late.

280 Extra Income for Handling Foreclosure

281 Lender acted with deliberate malice in order to induce petitioner to enter into a loan agreement
282 on which Lender intended petitioner to default. In case of default, the Lender, acting as servicer, 283 receives considerable funds for handling and executing the foreclosure process.

284 Credit Default Swap Gambling

285 Lender, after deliberately creating a loan intended to default is now in a position to bet on credit
286 default swap, commonly referred to as a derivative as addressed more fully below. Since Lender 287 designed the loan to fail, betting on said failure is essentially a sure thing.

288 LENDER ATTEMPTING TO FRAUDULENTLY COLLECT ON VOID LIEN

289 Lender sold the security instrument after closing and received consideration in an amount in 290 excess of the lien held by Lender. Since Lender retained the lien document upon the sale of the ORIGINAL PETITION

291 security instrument, Lender separated the lien from said security instrument, creating a fatal and 292 irreparable flaw.

293 When Lender received consideration while still holding the lien and said consideration was in 294 excess of the amount of the lien, Lender was in a position such that he could not be harmed and 295 could not gain standing to enforce the lien. The lien was, thereby, rendered void.

296 Since the separation of the lien from the security instrument creates such a considerable concern, 297 said separation certainly begs a question: "Why would the Lender retain the lien when selling the 298 security instrument?"

299 When you follow the money the answer is clear. The Lender will hold the lien for three years,
300 then file an IRS Form 1099a and claim the full amount of the lien as abandoned funds and deduct
301 the full amount from Lender's tax liability, thereby, receiving consideration a second time.

302 Later, in the expected eventuality of default by petitioner, Lender then claimed to transfer the 303 lien to the holder of the security, however, the lien once satisfied, does not gain authority just 304 because the holder, after receiving consideration, decides to transfer it to someone else.

305 LENDER PROFIT BY CREDIT DEFAULT SWAP DERIVATIVES

306 Lender further stood to profit by credit default swaps in the derivatives market, by way of inside 307 information that Lender had as a result of creating the faulty loans sure to default. Lender was 308 then free to invest on the bet that said loan would default and stood to receive unjust enrichment 309 a third time. This credit default swap derivative market scheme is almost totally responsible for 310 the stock market disaster we now experience as it was responsible for the stock market crash in 311 1907.

312 TRUTH IN LENDING STATEMENT VARIANCES

313 The lender defrauded Petitioner by claiming a fraudulent payment amount not consistent with the 314 provisions of the contract entered into by Petitioner. If Petitioner paid the amount specified by 315 the Truth in Lending Statement, instead of the amount agreed to in the promissory note created 316 by Petitioner, Lender would have defrauded Petitioner of an amount equal to $358,771.38.

317 LENDER CHARGED FALSE FEES

318 Lender charged fees to Petitioner that were in violation of the limitations imposed by the Real
319 Estate Settlement Procedures Act as said fees were simply contrived and not paid to a third party 320 vendor.

321 Lender charged other fees that were a normal part of doing business and should have been 322 included in the finance charge.

323 Below is a listing of the fees charged at settlement. Neither at settlement, nor at any other time
324 did Lender or Trustee provide documentation to show that the fees herein listed were valid, 325 necessary, reasonable, and proper to charge Petitioner.

803	Appraisal Fee	$275.00
804	Credit Report	$14.00
805	Tax Service Fee	$65.00
806	Flood Life of Loan Fee	$19.00
807	Processing Fee	$650.00
808	Title Ins. Fee	$1,000.00
809	Loan Signing Fee	$100.00
901	Interest from to @ /day (days)	$1,610.91
903	Hazard Insurance Premium	$812.40
1004	County Property Taxes	$1,229.20
1101	Settlement or closing fee to	$5,511.99
1201	Recording Fee	$75.00

326 Debtor is unable to determine whether or not the above fees are valid in accordance with the 327 restrictions provided by the various consumer protection laws. Therefore, please provide; a 328 complete billing from each vendor who provided the above listed services; the complete contact 329 information for each vendor who provided a billed service; clearly stipulate as to the specific 330 service performed; a showing that said service was necessary; a showing that the cost of said
331 service is reasonable; a showing of why said service is not a regular cost of doing business that 332 should rightly be included in the finance charge.

333 The above charges are hereby disputed and deemed unreasonable until such time as said charges 334 have been demonstrated to be reasonable, necessary, and in accordance with the limitations and 335 restrictions included in any and all laws, rules, and regulations intended to protect the consumer.

336 In the event lender fails to properly document the above charges, borrower will consider same as 337 false charges. The effect of the above amounts that borrower would pay over the life of the note
338 will be an overpayment of $284,680.64 This amount will be reduced by the amount of items 339 above when said items are fully documented.

340 RESPA PENALTY

341 From a cursory examination of the records, with the few available, the apparent RESPA
342 violations are as follows: Good Faith Estimate not within limits, No HUD-1 Booklet, Truth In 343 Lending Statement not within limits compared to Note, Truth in Lending Statement not timely
344 presented, HUD-1 not presented at least one day before closing, No Holder Rule Notice in Note, 345 No 1st Payment Letter.

346 The closing documents included no signed and dated : Financial Privacy Act Disclosure; Equal
347 Credit Reporting Act Disclosure; notice of right to receive appraisal report; servicing disclosure
348 statement; borrower's Certification of Authorization; notice of credit score; RESPA servicing
349 disclosure letter; loan discount fee disclosure; business insurance company arrangement 350 disclosure; notice of right to rescind.

351 The courts have held that the borrower does not have to show harm to claim a violation of the 352 Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act, as the Act was intended to insure strict compliance. And, 353 in as much as the courts are directed to assess a penalty of no less than two hundred dollars and 354 no more than two thousand, considering the large number enumerated here, it is reasonable to 355 consider that the court will assess the maximum amount for each violation.

356 Since the courts have held that the penalty for a violation of RESPA accrues at consummation of 357 the note, borrower has calculated that, the number of violations found in a cursory examination 358 of the note, if deducted from the principal, would result in an overpayment on the part of the 359 borrower, over the life of the note, of $332,889.73.

360 If the violation penalty amounts for each of the unsupported fees listed above are included, the 361 amount by which the borrower would be defrauded is $375,256.49

362 Adding in RESPA penalties for all the unsupported settlement fees along with the TILA>Note
363 variance, it appears that lender intended to defraud borrower in the amount of $1,351,598.24

364 LENDER CONSPIRED WITH APPRAISER

365 Lender, in furtherance of the above referenced conspiracy, conspired with appraiser for the 366 purpose of preparing an appraisal with a falsely stated price, in violation of appraiser's fiduciary 367 duty to Petitioner and appraiser's duty to provide fair and honest services, for the purpose of 368 inducing Petitioner to enter into a loan product that was fraudulent toward the interests of 369 Petitioner.

370 LENDER CONSPIRED WITH TRUSTEE

371 Lender conspired with the trust Agent at closing to create a condition of stress for the specific 372 purpose of inducing Petitioner to sign documents without allowing time for Petitioner to read and 373 fully understand what was being signed.

374 The above referenced closing procedure was a carefully crafted connivance, designed and 375 intended to induce Petitioner, through shame and trickery, in violation of trustee's fiduciary duty
376 to Petitioner and the duty to provide fair and honest services, to sign documents that Petitioner
377 did not have opportunity to read and fully understand, thereby, denying Petitioner full disclosure 378 as required by various consumer protection statutes.

379 DECEPTIVE ADVERTISING AND OTHER UNFAIR BUSINESS PRACTICES

380 In the manner in which Defendants have carried on their business enterprises, they have engaged 381 in a variety of unfair and unlawful business practices prohibited by 15 USC Section 45 et seq.
382 (Deceptive Practices Act).

383 Such conduct comprises a pattern of business activity within the meaning of such statutes, and 384 has directly and proximately caused Petitioner to suffer economic and non-economic harm and 385 detriment in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial of this matter.

386 EQUITABLE TOLLING FOR TILA AND RESPA

387 The Limitations Period for Petitioners' Damages Claims under TILA and RESPA should be 388 Equitably Tolled due to the DEFENDANTS' Misrepresentations and Failure to Disclose.

389 Any claims for statutory and other money damages under the Truth in Lending Act (15 U.S.C. § 390 1601, et. seq.) and under the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (12 U.S.C. § 2601 et. seq.)
391 are subject to a one-year limitations period; however, such claims are subject to the equitable 392 tolling doctrine. The Ninth Circuit has interpreted the TILA limitations period in § 1640(e) as 393 subject to equitable tolling. In King v. California, 784 F.2d 910 (9th Cir. 1986), the court held 394 that given the remedial purpose of TILA, the limitations period should run from the date of 395 consummation of the transaction, but that "the doctrine of equitable tolling may, in appropriate 396 circumstances, suspend the limitations period until the borrower discovers or has reasonable 397 opportunity to discover the fraud or nondisclosures that form the basis of the TILA action." King 398 v. California, 784 F.2d 910, 915 9th Cir. 1986).

399 Likewise, while the Ninth Circuit has not taken up the question whether 12 U.S.C. § 2614, the 400 anti-kickback provision of RESPA, is subject to equitable tolling, other Courts have, and hold 401 that such limitations period may be equitably tolled. The Court of Appeals for the District of 402 Columbia held that § 2614 imposes a strictly jurisdictional limitation, Hardin v. City Title &
403 Escrow Co., 797 F.2d 1037, 1039-40 (D.C. Cir. 1986), while the Seventh Circuit came to the 404 opposite conclusion. Lawyers Title Ins. Corp. v. Dearborn Title Corp., 118 F.3d 1157, 1164 (7th 405 Cir. 1997). District courts have largely come down on the side of the Seventh Circuit in holding 406 that the one-year limitations period in § 2614 is subject to equitable tolling. See, e.g., Kerby v.
407 Mortgage Funding Corp., 992 F.Supp. 787, 791-98 (D.Md.1998); Moll v. U.S. Life Title Ins. Co., 408 700 F.Supp. 1284, 1286-89 (S.D.N.Y.1988). Importantly, the Ninth Circuit, as noted above, has 409 interpreted the TILA limitations period in 15 U.S.C. § 1640 as subject to equitable tolling; the 410 language of the two provisions is nearly identical. King v. California, 784 F.2d at 914. While not 411 of precedential value, this Court has previously found both the TILA and RESPA limitations
412 periods to be subject to equitable tolling. Blaylock v. First American Title Ins. Co., 504
413 F.Supp.2d 1091, (W.D. Wash. 2007). 1106-07.

414 The Ninth Circuit has explained that the doctrine of equitable tolling "focuses on excusable delay
415 by the Petitioner," and inquires whether "a reasonable Petitioner would ... have known of the 416 existence of a possible claim within the limitations period." Johnson v. Henderson, 314 F.3d 417 409, 414 (9th Cir.2002), Santa Maria v. Pacific Bell, 202 F.3d 1170, 1178 (9th Cir.2000).
418 Equitable tolling focuses on the reasonableness of the Petitioner's delay and does not depend on 419 any wrongful conduct by the Defendants. Santa Maria. at 1178.

420 BUSINESS PRACTICES CONCERNING DISREGARDING OF UNDERWRITING
421 STANDARDS

422 Traditionally, Lenders required borrowers seeking mortgage loans to document their income and 423 assets by, for example, providing W-2 statements, tax returns, bank statements, documents 424 evidencing title, employment information, and other information and documentation that could 425 be analyzed and investigated for its truthfulness, accuracy, and to determine the borrower's 426 ability to repay a particular loan over both the short and long term. Defendants deviated from and 427 disregarded these standards, particularly with regard to its riskier and more profitable loan 428 products.

429 Low-Documentation/No-Documentation Loans.

430 Driven by its desire for market share and a perceived need to maintain competitiveness with the 431 likes of Countrywide, Defendants began to introduce an ever increasing variety of low and no
432 documentation loan products, including the HARMs and HELOCs described hereinabove, and 433 began to deviate from and ease its underwriting criteria, and then to grant liberal exceptions to 434 the already eased underwriting standards to the point of disregarding such standards. This 435 quickened the loan origination process, allowing for the generation of more and more loans
436 which could then be resold and/or securitized in the secondary market.

437 Defendants marketed no-documentation/low-documentation loan programs that included
438 HARMs and HELOCs, among others, in which loans were given based on the borrower's "stated 439 income" or "stated assets" (SISA) neither of which were verified. Employment was verbally 440 confirmed, if at all, but not further investigated, and income, if it was even considered as a factor, 441 was to be roughly consistent with incomes in the types of jobs in which the borrower was 442 employed. When borrowers were requested to document their income, they were able to do so 443 through information that was less reliable than in a full-documentation loan.

444 For stated income loans, it became standard practice for loan processors, loan officers and 445 underwriters to rely on www.salary.com to see if a stated income was reasonable. Such stated 446 income loans, emphasizing loan origination from a profitability standpoint at the expense of 447 determining the ability of the borrower to repay the loan from an underwriting standpoint, 448 encouraged the overstating and/or fabrication of income.

449 Easing of Underwriting Standards

450 In order to produce more loans that could be resold in the secondary mortgage market, 451 Defendants also relaxed, and often disregarded, traditional underwriting standards used to 452 separate acceptable from unacceptable risk. Examples of such relaxed standards were reducing 453 the base FICO score needed for a SISA loan.

454 Other underwriting standards that Defendants relaxed included qualifying interest rates (the rate 455 used to determine whether borrowers can afford the loan), loan to value ratios (the amount of 456 loan(s) compared to the appraised/sale price of the property, whichever is lower), and debt-to-457 income ratios (the amount of monthly income compared to monthly debt service payments and 458 other monthly payment obligations).

459 With respect to HARMS, Defendants underwrote loans without regard to the borrower's long-460 term financial circumstances, approving the loan based on the initial fixed rate without taking 461 into account whether the borrower could afford the substantially higher payment that would 462 inevitably be required during the remaining term of the loan.

463 With respect to HELOCs, Defendants underwrote and approved such loans based only on the 464 borrower's ability to afford the interest-only payment during the initial draw period of the loan, 465 rather than on the borrower's ability to afford the subsequent, fully amortized principal and 466 interest payments.

467 As Defendants pushed to expand market share, they eased other basic underwriting standards.
468 For example, higher loan-to-value (LTV) and combined loan-to-value (CLTV) ratios were 469 allowed. Likewise, higher debt-to-income (DTI) ratios were allowed. At the same time that they 470 eased underwriting standards the Defendants also were encouraging consumers to go further into 471 debt in order to supply the very lucrative aftermarket of mortgage backed securities. The relaxed
472 underwriting standards created the aftermarket supply they needed. As a result, the Defendants
473 made it easy for the unwary consumer to take on more debt than he could afford by encouraging
474 unsound financial practices, all the while knowing defaults would occur more and more
475 frequently as the credit ratios of citizens reached the limit of the new relaxed underwriting
476 standards.

477 Defendants knew, or in the exercise of reasonable care should have known, from its own
478 underwriting guidelines industry standards that it was accumulating and selling/reselling risky
479 loans that were likely to end up in default. However, as the pressure mounted to increase market
480 share and originate more loans, Defendants began to grant "exceptions" even to its relaxed
481 underwriting guidelines. Such was the environment that loan officers and underwriters were,
482 from time to time, placed in the position of having to justify why they did not approve a loan that 483 failed to meet underwriting criteria.

484 Risk Layering

485 Defendants compromised its underwriting even further by risk layering, i.e. combining high risk 486 loans with one or more relaxed underwriting standards.

487 Defendants knew, or in the exercise of reasonable care should have known, that layered risk
488 would increase the likelihood of default. Among the risk layering Defendants engaged in were

489 approving HARM loans with little to no down payment, little to no documentation, and high 490 DTI/LTV/CLTV ratios. Despite such knowledge, Defendants combined these very risk factors in 491 the loans it promoted to borrowers.

492 Loan officers and mortgage Agents aided and abetted this scheme by working closely with other 493 mortgage Lenders/mortgage bankers to increase loan originations, knowing or having reason to 494 believe that Defendants and other mortgage Lenders/mortgage bankers with whom they did 495 business ignored basic established underwriting standards and acted to mislead the borrower, all 496 to the detriment of the borrower and the consumer of loan products..

497 Petitioner is informed and believe, and on that basis allege, that Defendants, and each of them, 498 engaged and/or actively participated in, authorized, ratified, or had knowledge of, all of the 499 business practices described above in paragraphs 30-42 of this Complaint

500 UNJUST ENRICHMENT

501 Petitioner is informed and believes that each and all of the Defendants received a benefit at 502 Petitioner's expense, including but not limited to the following: To the Agent, commissions, 503 yield spread premiums, spurious fees and charges, and other "back end" payments in amounts to 504 be proved at trial; To the originating Lender, commissions, incentive bonuses, resale premiums,
505 surcharges and other "back end" payments in amounts to be proved at trial; To the investors,
506 resale premiums, and high rates of return; To the servicers including EMS, servicing fees, 507 percentages of payment proceeds, charges, and other "back end" payments in amounts to be 508 proved at trial; To all participants, the expectation of future revenues from charges, penalties and 509 fees paid by Petitioner when the unaffordable LOAN was foreclosed or refinanced.

510 By their misrepresentations, omissions and other wrongful acts alleged heretofore, Defendants,
511 and each of them, were unjustly enriched at the expense of Petitioner, and Petitioner was unjustly
512 deprived, and is entitled to restitution in the amount of $1,351,598.24

513 CLAIM TO QUIET TITLE.

514 Petitioner properly averred a claim to quiet title. Petitioner included both the street address, and 515 the Assessor's Parcel Number for the property. Petitioner has set forth facts concerning the title
516 interests of the subject property. Moreover, as shown above, Petitioner's claims for rescission
517 and fraud are meritorious. As such, Petitioner's bases for quiet title are meritorious as well.

518 Defendants have no title, estate, lien, or interest in the Subject Property in that the purported
519 power of sale contained in the Deed of Trust is of no force or effect because Defendants' security
520 interest in the Subject Property has been rendered void and that the Defendants are not the holder
521 in due course of the Promissory Note. Moreover, because Petitioner properly pled all Defendants'
522 involvement in a fraudulent scheme, all Defendants are liable for the acts of its co-conspirators,

523 "a Petitioner is entitled to damages from those Defendants who concur in the tortious 524 scheme with knowledge of its unlawful purpose." Wyatt v. Union Mortgage Co., 24 Cal.
525 3d 773, 157 Cal. Rptr. 392, 598 P.2d 45 (1979); Novartis Vaccines and Diagnostics, Inc.
526 v. Stop Huntingdon Animal Cruelty USA, Inc., 143 Cal. App. 4th 1284, 50 Cal. Rptr. 3d
527 27 (1st Dist. 2006); Kidron v. Movie Acquisition Corp., 40 Cal. App. 4th 1571, 47 Cal.
528 Rptr. 2d 752 (2d Dist. 1995).

529 SUFFICIENCY OF PLEADING

530 Petitioner has sufficiently pled that relief can be granted on each and every one of the 531 Complaint's causes of action. A complaint should not be dismissed "unless it appears beyond 532 doubt that the Petitioner can prove no set of facts in support of Petitioner claim which would 533 entitle Petitioner to relief." Housley v. U.S. (9th Cir. Nev. 1994) 35 F.3d 400, 401. "All 534 allegations of material fact in the complaint are taken as true and construed in the light most 535 favorable to Petitioner." Argabright v. United States, 35 F.3d 1476, 1479 (9th Cir. 1996).

536 Attendant, the Complaint includes a "short, plain statement, of the basis for relief." Fed. Rule Civ. Proc.
537 8(a). The Complaint contains cognizable legal theories, sufficient facts to support cognizable legal 538 theories, and seeks remedies to which Petitioner is entitled. Balistreri v. Pacifica Police Dept., 901 F.2d 539 696, 699 (9th Cir. 1988); King v. California, 784 F.2d 910, 913 (9th Cir. 1986). Moreover, the legal 540 conclusions in the Complaint can and should be drawn from the facts alleged, and, in turn, the court
541 should accept them as such. Clegg v. Cult Awareness Network, 18 F.3d 752 (9th Cir, 1994). Lastly,
542 Petitioner's complaint contains claims and has a probable validity of proving a "set of facts" in support of 543 their claim entitling them to relief. Housley v. U.S. (9th Cir. Nev. 1994) 35 F.3d 400, 401. Therefore, 544 relief as requested herein should be granted.

545

CAUSES OF ACTION

546

BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY

547 Defendants Agent, appraiser, trustee, Lender, et al, and each of them, owed Petitioner a fiduciary 548 duty of care with respect to the mortgage loan transactions and related title activities involving 549 the Trust Property.

550 Defendants breached their duties to Petitioner by, inter alia, the conduct described above. Such 551 breaches included, but were not limited to, ensuring their own and Petitioners' compliance with 552 all applicable laws governing the loan transactions in which they were involved, including but 553 not limited to, TILA, HOEPA, RESPA and the Regulations X and Z promulgated there under.

554 Defendant's breaches of said duties were a direct and proximate cause of economic and non-555 economic harm and detriment to Petitioner(s).

556 Petitioner did suffer economic, non-economic harm, and detriment as a result of such conduct, 557 all to be shown according to proof at trial of this matter.

558

CAUSE OF ACTION - NEGLIGENCE/NEGLIGENCE PER SE

559 Defendants owed a general duty of care with respect to Petitioners, particularly concerning their 560 duty to properly perform due diligence as to the loans and related transactional issues described 561 hereinabove.

562 In addition, Defendants owed a duty of care under TILA, HOEPA, RESPA and the Regulations
563 X and Z promulgated there under to, among other things, provide proper disclosures concerning 564 the terms and conditions of the loans they marketed, to refrain from marketing loans they knew 565 or should have known that borrowers could not afford or maintain, and to avoid paying undue 566 compensation such as "yield spread premiums" to mortgage Agents and loan officers.

567 Defendants knew or in the exercise of reasonable care should have known, that the loan 568 transactions involving Petitioner and other persons similarly situated were defective, unlawful,
569 violative of federal and state laws and regulations, and would subject Petitioner to economic and 570 non-economic harm and other detriment.

571 Petitioner is among the class of persons that TILA, HOEPA, RESPA and the Regulations X and 572 Z promulgated there under were intended and designed to protect, and the conduct alleged

573 against Defendants is the type of conduct and harm which the referenced statutes and regulations 574 were designed to deter.

575 As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's negligence, Petitioner suffered economic and 576 non-economic harm in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

577 AGENT: COMMON LAW FRAUD

578 If any Agents' misrepresentations made herein were not intentional, said misrepresentations were 579 negligent. When the Agents made the representations alleged herein, he/she/it had no reasonable 580 ground for believing them to be true.

581 Agents made these representations with the intention of inducing Petitioner to act in reliance on 582 these representations in the manner hereafter alleged, or with the expectation that Petitioner 583 would so act.

584 Petitioner is informed and believes that Agent et al, facilitated, aided and abetted various Agents
585 in their negligent misrepresentation, and that various Agents were negligent in not implementing 586 procedures such as underwriting standards oversight that would have prevented various Agents
587 from facilitating the irresponsible and wrongful misrepresentations of various Agents to 588 Defendants.

589 Petitioner is informed and believes that Agent acted in concert and collusion with others named 590 herein in promulgating false representations to cause Petitioner to enter into the LOAN without 591 knowledge or understanding of the terms thereof.

592 As a proximate result of the negligent misrepresentations of Agents as herein alleged, the 593 Petitioner sustained damages, including monetary loss, emotional distress, loss of credit, loss of 594 opportunities, attorney fees and costs, and other damages to be determined at trial. As a 595 proximate result of Agents' breach of duty and all other actions as alleged herein, Defendants has 596 suffered severe emotional distress, mental anguish, harm, humiliation, embarrassment, and 597 mental and physical pain and anguish, all to Petitioner's damage in an amount to be established 598 at trial.

599 PETITIONER PROPERLY AVERRED A CLAIM FOR BREACH OF THE IMPLIED
600 COVENANT OF GOOD FAITH AND FAIR DEALING.

601 Petitioner properly pled Defendants violated the breach of implied covenant of good faith and 602 fair dealing. "Every contract imposes upon each party a duty of good faith and fair dealing in its 603 performance and its enforcement." Price v. Wells Fargo Bank, 213 Cal.App.3d 465, 478, 261
604 Cal. Rptr. 735 (1989); Rest.2d Contracts § 205. A mortgage Agent has fiduciary duties. Wyatt v.
605 Union Mortgage Co., (1979) 24 Cal. 3d. 773. Further, In Jonathan Neil & Associates, Inc. v
606 Jones, (2004) 33 Cal. 4th 917, the court stated:

607 In the area of insurance contracts the covenant of good faith and fair dealing has taken on a 608 particular significance, in part because of the special relationship between the insurer and the 609 insured. The insurer, when determining whether to settle a claim, must give at least as much 610 consideration to the welfare of its insured as it gives to its own interests. . . The standard is 611 premised on the insurer's obligation to protect the insured's interests . . . Id. at 937.

612 Likewise, there is a special relationship between an Agent and borrower. "A person who 613 provides Agency services to a borrower in a covered loan transaction by soliciting Lenders or 614 otherwise negotiating a consumer loan secured by real property, is the fiduciary of the 615 consumer...this fiduciary duty [is owed] to the consumer regardless of whom else the Agent may 616 be acting as an Agent for . . . The fiduciary duty of the Agent is to deal with the consumer in 617 good faith. If the Agent knew or should have known that the Borrower will or has a likelihood of 618 defaulting ... they have a fiduciary duty to the borrower not to place them in that loan."
619 (California Department of Real Estate, Section 8: Fiduciary Responsibility, www.dre.ca.gov).
620 [Emphasis Added].

621 All Defendants, willfully breached their implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing with 622 Petitioner when Defendants: (1) Failed to provide all of the proper disclosures; (2) Failed to 623 provide accurate Right to Cancel Notices; (3) Placed Petitioner into Petitioner's current loan
624 product without regard for other more affordable products; (4) Placed Petitioner into a loan
625 without following proper underwriting standards; (5) Failed to disclose to Petitioner that 626 Petitioner was going to default because of the loan being unaffordable; (6) Failed to perform
627 valid and /or properly documented substitutions and assignments so that Petitioner could 628 ascertain Petitioner rights and duties; and (7) Failed to respond in good faith to Petitioner's 629 request for documentation of the servicing of Petitioner's loan and the existence and content of 630 relevant documents. Additionally, Defendants breached their implied covenant of good faith and 631 fair dealing with Petitioner when Defendants initiated foreclosure proceedings even without the 632 right under an alleged power of sale because the purported assignment was not recorded and by 633 willfully and knowingly financially profiting from their malfeasance. Therefore, due to the 634 special relationship inherent in a real estate transaction between Agent and borrower, and all

635 Defendants' participation in the conspiracy, the Motion to Dismiss should be denied.

636 CAUSE OF ACTION VIOLATION OF TRUTH IN LENDING ACT 15 U.S.C. §1601 ET 637 SEQ

638 Petitioner hereby incorporates by reference, re-pleads and re-alleges each and every allegation
639 contained in all of the paragraphs of the General Allegations and Facts Common to All Causes of 640 Action as though the same were set forth herein.

641 Petitioner is informed and believes that Defendant's violation of the provisions of law rendered
642 the credit transaction null and void, invalidates Defendant's claimed interest in the Subject
643 Property, and entitles Petitioner to damages as proven at trial.

644 INTENTIONAL INFILCTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

645 The conduct committed by Defendants, driven as it was by profit at the expense of increasingly 646 highly leveraged and vulnerable consumers who placed their faith and trust in the superior
647 knowledge and position of Defendants, was extreme and outrageous and not to be tolerated by 648 civilized society.

649 Defendants either knew that their conduct would cause Petitioner to suffer severe emotional 650 distress, or acted in conscious and/or reckless disregard of the probability that such distress
651 would occur.

652 Petitioner did in fact suffer severe emotional distress as an actual and proximate result of the 653 conduct of Defendants as described hereinabove.

654 As a result of such severe emotional distress, Petitioner suffered economic and non economic 655 harm and detriment, all to be shown according to proof at trial of this matter.

656 Petitioner demands that Defendants provide Petitioner with release of lien on the lien signed by 657 Petitioner and secure to Petitioner quiet title;

658 Petitioner demands Defendants disgorge themselves of all enrichment received from Petitioner
659 as payments to Defendants based on the fraudulently secured promissory note in an amount to be 660 calculated by Defendants and verified to Petitioner;

661 Petitioner further demands that Defendants pay to Petitioner an amount equal to treble the 662 amount Defendants intended to defraud Petitioner of which amount Petitioner calculated to be 663 equal to $4,054,794.72

664 PRAYER

665 WHEREFORE, Petitioner prays for judgment against the named Defendants, and each of them,
666 as follows:

667 For an emergency restraining order enjoining lender and any successor in interest from 668 foreclosing on Petitioner's Property pending adjudication of Petitioner's claims set forth 669 herein;

670 For a permanent injunction enjoining Defendants from engaging in the fraudulent, 671 deceptive, predatory and negligent acts and practices alleged herein;

672 For quiet title to Property;

673 For rescission of the loan contract and restitution by Defendants to Petitioner according 674 to proof at trial;

675 For disgorgement of all amounts wrongfully acquired by Defendants according to proof
676 at trial;

677 For actual monetary damages in the amount $1,351,598.24;

678 For pain and suffering due to extreme mental anguish in an amount to be determined at 679 trial.

680 For pre-judgment and post-judgment interest according to proof at trial;

681 For punitive damages according to proof at trial in an amount equal to $4,054,794.72.

682 For attorney's fees and costs as provided by statute; and,

683 For such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Opinion

ORDER GRANTING DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO DISMISS

JANIS L. SAMMARTINO, District Judge.

*1 Presently before the Court is Defendant Wells Fargo Home Mortgage's (Defendant or Wells Fargo) motion to dismiss plaintiffs' complaint. (Doc. No. 11 (Mot. to Dismiss).) Also before the Court is Plaintiffs Placido F. Soliven and Yolanda G. Soliven's (Plaintiffs) response in opposition (Doc. No. 12 (Opp'n)) and Defendant's reply in support. (Doc. No. 13 (Reply).) For the reasons stated below, the Court GRANTS Defendant's motion to dismiss:

BACKGROUND

Plaintiffs refinanced their home on July 11, 2007, taking out a loan for $448,000. (Doc. No. 6(FAC) at 1, 4.) The loan is now in dispute. Plaintiffs, proceeding pro se, filed its first complaint on June 29, 2010. Plaintiffs then filed an amended complaint on July 6, 2010. It alleges causes of action for (1) unjust enrichment, (2) quiet title, (3) breach of fiduciary duty, (4) negligence, (5) fraud, (6) breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, (7) violation of Truth In Lending Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1601, and (8) intentional infliction of emotional distress.

LEGAL STANDARD

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(6) permits a party to raise by motion the defense that the complaint "fail[s] to state a claim upon which relief can be granted," generally referred to as a motion to dismiss. The Court evaluates whether a complaint states a cognizable legal theory and sufficient facts in light of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(a), which requires a "short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief." Although Rule 8 "does not require 'detailed factual allegations,' ... it [does] demand[] more than an unadorned, the-defendant-unlawfully-harmed-me accusation." Ashcroft v. Iqbal, --- U.S. ----, 129 S.Ct. 1937, 1949, 173 L.Ed.2d 868 (2009) (quoting Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 555, 127 S.Ct. 1955, 167 L.Ed.2d 929 (2007)). In other words, "a plaintiff's obligation to provide the 'grounds' of his 'entitle[ment] to relief' requires more than labels and conclusions, and a formulaic recitation of the elements of a cause of action will not do." Twombly, 550 U.S. at 555 (citing Papasan v. Allain, 478 U.S. 265, 286, 106 S.Ct. 2932, 92 L.Ed.2d 209 (1986)). "Nor does a complaint suffice if it tenders 'naked assertion[s]' devoid of 'further factual enhancement.' " Iqbal, 129 S.Ct. at 1949 (citing Twombly, 550 U.S. at 557).

"To survive a motion to dismiss, a complaint must contain sufficient factual matter, accepted as true, to 'state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.' " Id. (quoting Twombly, 550 U.S. at 570); see also Fed.R.Civ.P. 12(b) (6). A claim is facially plausible when the facts pled "allow[] the court to draw the reasonable inference that the defendant is liable for the misconduct alleged." Iqbal, 129 S.Ct. at 1949 (citing Twombly, 550 U.S. at 556). That is not to say that the claim must be probable, but there must be "more than a sheer possibility that a defendant has acted unlawfully." Id. Facts "merely consistent with" a defendant's liability fall short of a plausible entitlement to relief. Id. (quoting Twombly, 550 U.S. at 557). Further, the Court need not accept as true "legal conclusions" contained in the complaint. Id. This review requires context-specific analysis involving the Court's "judicial experience and common sense." Id. at 1950 (citation omitted). "[W]here the well-pleaded facts do not permit the court to infer more than the mere possibility of misconduct, the complaint has alleged-but it has not 'show[n]'-that the pleader is entitled to relief." Id.

*2 Plaintiff's complaint is devoid of any specific factual allegations. This is understandable because the first half of Plaintiff's complaint replicates a complaint available on the internet.¹ (Reply, Exhibit A at 1.) And the complaint on the internet is itself based on an internet essay concerning "what banks do and how they operate." (Reply, Exhibit B.) The second half of Plaintiff's complaint continues in much the same manner. As a whole, the complaint contains only conclusory statements and generalized facts. For instance, Plaintiff alleges that "Lender Conspired with Trustee" in the following manner:

Lender conspired with the trust Agent at closing to create a condition of stress for the specific purpose of inducing Petitioner to sign documents without allowing time for Petitioner to read and fully understand what was being signed.

The above referenced closing procedure was a carefully crafted connivance, designed and intended to induce Petitioner, through shame and trickery, in violation of trustee's fiduciary duty to Petitioner and the duty to provide fair and honest services, to sign documents that Petitioner did not have opportunity to read and fully understand, thereby, denying Petitioner full disclosure as required by various consumer protection statutes.

(Complaint at 14.)

Plaintiff alleges "Deceptive Advertising and Other Unfair Business Practices" in a similar fashion:

In the manner in which Defendants have carried out their business enterprises, they have engaged in a variety of unfair and unlawful business practices prohibited by 15 USC Section 45 et seq. (Deceptive Practices Act).

Such conduct comprises a pattern of business activity within the meaning of such statutes, and has directly and proximately caused Petitioner to suffer economic and non-economic harm and detriment in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial of this matter.

(Id.)

The only facts that are specifically alleged are Plaintiffs' names, Defendant's identity, location of the property, and the amount of the loan. A complaint so broadly stated that it contains no information specific to a party is not a complaint that satisfies Rule 8. This complaint could not even be considered an unadorned the-defendant-unlawfully-harmed-me accusation. See Ashcroft, 129 S.Ct. at 1949 (2009). And when fraud is a cause of action, such a complaint certainly does not meet Rule 9's heightened pleading requirement. Plaintiffs' complaint fails to meet the pleading standards set forth in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. As a result, Plaintiffs fail to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, the Court GRANTS Defendant's motion to dismiss. Plaintiffs' first amended complaint is DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Footnotes

1 Interestingly enough, Plaintiff's opposition to the motion to dismiss states that "Defendant complains that the document is similar to other documents alleging wrongdoing by banks and lending institutions." (Opp'n ¶ 25.) The Court cannot find any such statement by Defendant in its motion to dismiss.
